

Chisago Lakes Schools and Chisago Lakes Area Library Partner for “Authors Live”

A collaboration between Chisago Lakes Schools and Chisago Lakes Area Library brings special opportunities to meet authors, ask questions and get signed copies of books. These events will take place at either the public library or the middle school media center.

April 8, 2010 4:30 - 5:30 PM Middle School Media Center - Sue Leaf

Sue Leaf is a freelance writer and the author of Potato City: History, Nature, and Community in the Age of Sprawl. In The Bullhead Queen, Sue Leaf exemplifies the moral aspect of humans to nature through a collection of engaging meditations on the places she sees every day on Pioneer Lake. Her essays have appeared in Minnesota Monthly, Utne Reader, Minnesota Conservation Volunteer, and Architecture Minnesota. A former college instructor in biology and environmental science, she holds a doctorate in zoology from the University of Minnesota. She is president of Wild River Audubon and lives in Center City, Minnesota, on the shore of Pioneer Lake.

* 5:50 PM Dinner - $6.50 with advanced reservations and payment through Chisago Lakes Food Service, 651-213-2066 or email dpeltier@chisagolakes.k12.mn.us

May 13, 2010 7:00-8:00 PM Lakes Area Library - Roger Stelljes

Roger Stelljes is a lifelong Minnesotan. He graduated from Osseo High School in 1985. He is a 1989 graduate of Minnesota State University-Mankato, where he majored in history and minored in political science.

Following in the footsteps of his grandfather and uncle, he moved onto law school and graduated from William Mitchell College of Law in 1994. He resides in the Twin Cities with his wife and two children and practices law in Minneapolis.
